

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

FOR RESOURCE LEASE, PERMIT OR OTHER ENTITLEMENT FOR USE (GEOTHERMAL, MINERAL, OR OIL & GAS)

The attached Application Form was developed in accordance with Government Code Section 95940. The form was designed to apply to a variety of land use situations including surface and subsurface resource development involving small and large acreages. The form is intended to permit the applicant to describe fully the proposed use of the State lands or resources.

The information sought in the Application Form is required from the applicant and the sufficiency of the information provided by the applicant will be the basis by which the staff will determine the completeness of the application as specified in Government Code Section 95943.

When completing the Application Form, please type or write clearly, answer all questions and write "NA" if a question does not apply. The information and material requested are necessary to process your application. In addition, please submit any information believed important in support of the application.

All plans and materials submitted become part of the official file and cannot be returned; however, certain information deemed proprietary by statute may be withheld from public review if requested by the applicant. You have the right to review the files maintained about you, except as provided by law. Questions regarding the files should be directed to the attention of: Records Coordinator, California State Lands Commission, 200 Oceangate, 12th Floor, Long Beach, CA 90802-4331; Telephone (562) 590-5201.

Failure of the applicant to adequately complete the Application Form and provide the information and material requested within the time limits prescribed by the staff may result in significant delays in determining the application complete or may result in the cancellation of the application.

Public Resources Code Sections 6000, et seq. and Title 2, Division 3, Sections 1900, et seq. of the California Code of Regulations govern the conduct of the Commission. The provisions, by reference, are included herein.

The Commission does not discriminate against any person or entity, in regard to the administration or operation of any agreement made under this procedure, on the basis of race, color, creed, national origin, sex, marital status, religious or political affiliation, ancestry, disability, age or sexual orientation.
