Project Background

In 1996, eight state and federal agencies agreed to establish a project for wetlands acquisition and restoration at the Bolsa Chica Lowlands. The eight agencies include: U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service; National Marine Fisheries Service; U.S. Army Corps of Engineers; Environmental Protection Agency; State of California, Department of Fish and Wildlife; Coastal Conservancy, Resources Agency, and the State Lands Commission.

The Bolsa Chica Lowlands Restoration Project is a 505-hectare (1,247-acre) coastal wetland restoration project located on lands owned by the State of California. It is the largest coastal wetland restoration project completed in California where a new coastal inlet has been constructed to restore tidal influence to previously diked and drained wetlands. The wetland restoration project was opened to tidal influence in 2006 and included the construction of an approximately 202-hectare (500-acre) Full Tidal Basin (FTB) along with muted tidal basins consisting of the Pocket Marsh, West Muted Tidal Basin (MTB), Central MTB, and East MTB. In addition to these areas where tidal influence was restored, the project includes the Seasonal Ponds (SP) and a Future Full Tidal Basin (FFTB) that are not open to tidal influence and support broad expanses of interconnected seasonal ponds that hold freshwater during the winter season and drain down to salt flats during the summer months.

Wetland restoration was completed under a Department of the Army Permit issued in August 2002 under section 10 of the Rivers and Harbors Act and section 404 of the Clean Water Act (ACOE #9700-19300-RLK), a Clean Water Act section 401 state water quality certification issued by the Santa Ana Regional Water Quality Control Board (dated April 23, 2002), and a federal Consistency Determination submitted by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service concurred with by the California Coastal Commission (CD-061-01). These authorizations and later extensions covered construction activities for the wetland restoration project and initial maintenance dredging cycles.

The tidal restoration was undertaken using funding for wetland restoration derived primarily through Port of Los Angeles and Port of Long Beach mitigation agreements. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service administered the final design and primary construction contracts necessary to accomplish the restoration. The State Lands Commission is the entity responsible for administering operation, maintenance, management activities. The California Department of Wildlife holds a lease from the State Lands Commission for the restored wetlands and manages the area as an ecological reserve. Following completion of the restoration, eelgrass was established through a coordinated agency staff and volunteer effort within the FTB to garner further habitat function from the restored system. This supplemental enhancement has been highly successful, but further increases the necessity to maintain a functional coastal inlet to protect the expanded resource values. To maintain the coastal inlet requires recurrent removal of littoral sand that is brought into the FTB through the tidal inlet and deposited within a large flood bar. The maintenance dredging of this bar is described below.

Maintenance Dredging Program

Background

Tidal circulation was provided to the restored wetlands and FTB through the construction of a new coastal inlet. The inlet requires regular sediment removal in order to reduce accumulated sand from the flood shoal that forms inside the FTB and to place the sand back into the littoral cell on the beach down coast from the inlet where it was captured. Since the opening of the inlet in 2006, two maintenance cycles have been completed. In early 2009, 180,050 cubic meters (235,500 cubic yards) of sand was dredged from the flood shoal and placed on the down coast beach. The second maintenance cycle, conducted from January through mid-April 2010, placed 303,210 cubic meters (396,580 cubic yards) of dredged material on the down coast beach.

These first two maintenance dredging cycles provided evidence that the complete removal of the entire shoal area within the FTB utilizing a large hydraulic dredge did not result in a cost-effective solution for the maintenance dredging of this wetland system. A substantial inlet shoal quickly reformed within a few months after the conclusion of each of these two dredging cycles. The shoal developed at the flair of the inlet channel in a deposit that resulted in substantial tidal muting shortly after termination of dredging. Tidal muting in the FTB decreases habitat values in both the FTB and MTBs. Over time, this shoal has increased in size by growth along the inner portion of the shoal and, if left unchecked, could result in closure of the inlet with severe environmental consequences. As a consequence, the current proposal employs a more strategic, down-sized annual dredging program to increase tidal flushing and reduce existing tidal muting in a more cost-effective manner by extending the dredging duration while removing a reduced, but specifically targeted amount of material.

Proposed Program Action

Under the proposed dredging approach, a smaller maintenance dredge operating for longer periods of time is expected to sustain greater tidal circulation in the wetlands than has been previously attained via past larger-scale maintenance dredging events. The next maintenance dredging is planned for 2014-2016 in two cycles (2014-2015 and 2015-2016) and will remove a portion of accumulated beach sand shoal from the inlet area and place this material to the southeast of the dredge area on the down coast beach between the southern inlet jetty and the boundary between the City of Huntington Beach and California State Park’s beaches. Material placement will be initiated at the north end of the beach near the southern inlet jetty and work will progress down coast towards the Huntington Bluffs, terminating at the boundary between the state and city beaches near the intersection of Seapoint Drive and Pacific Coast Highway. The objective of the beach disposal is to replenish the down-coast beach and minimize recapture of sand into the inlet. For this reason, sand is to be pumped into broad shore parallel sand flumes with chevrons that allow dredged slurry to flow slowly to the south where sands are settled in the flume and removed by bulldozer and water is discharged through the open end of the flume.
Alternative beach placement methodologies that achieve the same objective may be proposed by the Contractor.

Moving forward, the goal of the maintenance dredging program is to establish long-term permits, covering multiple annual maintenance dredging events that provide adequate tidal range in the FTB, as well as flexibility to respond to variable sand influx rates. This will ensure that dredging can be performed in an effective and efficient manner, while still protecting the overall ecosystem functions. This is especially important given the expanded value of subtidal habitat that has been garnered by the FTB enhancement through eelgrass restoration. The maintenance dredging program for the Bolsa Chica Lowlands Restoration Project is critical to maintaining system health. Development of a streamlined dredging program with maximal flexibility in implementation is crucial to ensuring that limited funds are effectively used to continue to meet this recurrent obligation.

The modified maintenance dredging program for the Bolsa Chica Lowlands proposes to partially remove accumulated sands from the FTB entrance channel and flood shoal deposits on an annual cycle. There is some uncertainty regarding how the inlet area will respond to this modified dredging program and as such, the work is intended to be adaptive in its implementation. As a consequence, key components to this program are: 1) the anticipated use of a small [203–305mm (8–12 inch) diameter dredge pipe] hydraulic cutter-head dredge to remove a minimum of 55,050 cubic meters (72,000 cubic yards) of material, 2) consistent dredging over a six month period (September 15 – March 15) with minimum and maximum average monthly production rates of 6,880 cubic meters (9,000 cubic yards) and 16,820 cubic meters (22,000 cubic yards), respectively, 3) implementing an adaptive dredging plan among five dredging zone areas within the shoal, 4) the incorporation of flexibility to allow biweekly adjustments to the dredging areas within the designated dredging zones depending on the sediment redistribution effects observed during the dredge operation, 5) potential use of land based equipment to facilitate efficient dredging operations, and 6) installation of a permanent 10-inch HDPE discharge pipeline between the beach side of the southern jetty and landward of the Oil Service Bridge to facilitate future dredge cycles. An expected outcome from the 2014-2015 dredging cycle is to better define the optimum dredging program to be utilized in the second dredging cycle (2015-2016) covered under this contract.

Sand material excavated from intertidal and shallow subtidal deposits in the flood shoal will be placed back into the littoral cell at the down coast beach in an area extending from the southern inlet channel jetty to a distance of up to 425 meters (1,400 feet) down coast. The receiver beach is the Bolsa Chica State Beach. The dredged sand will be deposited along the beach face to provide feeder sand for littoral transport southeastward along the shoreline. Placement elevations for sand will range from +5.0 meters to 0 meters (+16.4 feet to 0 feet) NAVD 88. The volume of material from each dredging cycle will be a minimum of 55,050 cubic meters (72,000 cubic yards) per year, although the State Lands Commission may increase this volume at its discretion by up to 20% [66,000 cubic meters (86,400 cubic yards) maximum] each year. Any decision by the State Lands Commission to increase the minimum dredge quantity will take into account the feasibility of this action given time and production constraints of the Contractor and the Contractor’s equipment. The lower depth of dredge material removal within the flood shoal will extend to −1.5 meters (−5.0 feet) NAVD 88. The material removal will occur within five designated dredge zones within the flood shoal where the sands fall out of suspension and where removal of the existing shoal is necessary for effective use of the launching area for maintenance dredging, resource management, and emergency oil response requirements.

Dredging and beach placement shall be conducted as one continuous process of excavation, transport, and placement. While the removal of flood shoal sand is expected to be completed via a small [203–305mm (8–12 inch) diameter intake] suction cutterhead dredge, a clamshell, Sauerman/dragline, excavator, loader, bulldozer, or similar equipment may be used to augment a cutterhead dredge for enhanced efficiency. This does not preclude the Contractor’s use of a larger dredge, provided it is operated in a manner and at production rates that will achieve program objectives.

It is believed that increased dredging or flow efficiencies may be garnered by utilizing land based excavation equipment to support hydraulic dredging through feeding the dredge, conducting some excavation with land equipment, and/or stimulating shoal erosion to facilitate natural sand export from the wetlands. To accommodate an adaptive application of conventional excavation equipment, the Contractor is being requested to provide costs for mobilization and use of excavation equipment for a specific number of hours. These are optional elements of the work but are factored into the overall bid price selection criteria.

Equipment for completion of work shall be staged primarily within disturbed uplands adjacent to the FTB at a maintenance staging area established previously during the construction of the restoration project. The staging area includes a maintenance access boat ramp, a Contractor lay down area, and a 12kV metered service switchgear facilities for potential electric dredge operations. A secondary storage yard at the beach receiver site will consist of a fenced Contractor yard for limited equipment storage necessary to manage sand placement on the beach. This storage yard shall be located within an envelope extending seaward 30 meters (100 feet) from the existing asphalt bike trail and extending southeast 122 meters (400 feet) from the inlet south jetty, parallel to the bike trail. The exclusive beach storage yard shall be fenced and shall not exceed 1,190 square meters (12,800 square feet) within this larger envelope. The broader envelope is necessary to respond to changing beach profiles within this area depending upon storm history between dredging events.

2. State Right to Carry out the Work - If Contractor fails to carry out the work in accordance with the Contract Documents and fails within a five (5) day period after written notice from the State to eliminate (or commence to eliminate and thereafter work diligently to eliminate) such failure, State may regardless of whether an event of default has occurred, and without prejudice to other remedies, the State may have, correct such deficiencies. In such case an offset may be deducted from payments then or thereafter due Contractor the cost of correcting such deficiencies, including compensation for the State’s and State Manager’s additional services and expenses made necessary by such default, neglect, or failure. If payments then or thereafter due Contractor are not sufficient to cover such amounts, Contractor shall promptly pay the difference to State on demand. The correction of such deficiencies by the State or by others shall not relieve Contractor of any obligation or liability for the Work and shall not operate to waive any right or claim of State.

The State's waiver of immaterial defect shall in no way modify the IFB document or excuse the bidder from full compliance with all requirements if awarded the agreement.

c) Bids that contain false or misleading statements, or which provide references which do not support an attribute or condition claimed by the bidder, may be rejected. If, in the opinion of the State, such information was intended to mislead the State in its evaluation of the bid, and the attribute, condition, or capability is a requirement of this IFB, it will be the basis for rejection of the bid.

d) The final selection will be made on the basis of the lowest responsible bid.

e) Bidder's security for the three lowest bidders will be held until the agreement has been executed or all bids rejected. After such time, the security shall be returned.

Should Contractor fail to commence work at the agreed upon time, CSLC, upon five days written notice to the Contractor, reserves the right to terminate the agreement. In addition, the Contractor shall be liable to the State for the difference between Contractor's bid price and the actual cost of performing work by the second lowest bidder or by another contractor.

c) All performance under the agreement shall be completed on or before the termination date of the agreement.

d) The State does not accept alternate contract language from a prospective contractor. A bid with such language will be considered a counter proposal and will be rejected. e) Upon award of the agreement, Contractor must complete and submit to the CSLC the Payee Data Record (STD 204), to determine if the Contractor is subject to state income tax withholding pursuant to California Revenue and Taxation Code Sections 18662 and 26131. f) Upon award of the agreement, Contractor must sign and submit to the CSLC, page 1(Attachment 8) of the Contractor Certification Clauses (CCC) which can be found on the Internet at http://www.dgs.ca.gov/ols/Resources/StandardContractLanguage.aspx. g) No oral understanding or agreement shall be binding on either party.

6. Disposition of Bids – Bids will become public records upon publication Award. All documents submitted in response to this IFB will become the property of the State of California, and will be regarded as public records under the California Public Records Act (Government Code Section 6250 et seq.). However, the contents of all proposals, draft bids, correspondence, agenda, memoranda, working papers, or any other medium which discloses any aspect of a bidder’s proposal, shall be held in the strictest confidence until the “Notice of Award” is posted. Bid packages may be returned only at the bidder’s expense, unless such expense is waived by the CSLC.

7. Standard Agreement Language – The Contractor should review the terms of the proposed Contract and become familiar with its language. This will substantively be the Contract that will be entered into between the State and the Contractor.

8. DVBE Participation Requirement - This project has a mandatory participation goal of three percent (3%) of the total contract price for qualified Disabled Veteran’s Business Enterprise (DVBE). This three percent (3%) goal may be achieved by a combined effort of the Contractor and sub-contractors. Any business used to meet the DVBE requirement must be certified by or have certification pending with the Department of General Services, Office of Small Business Certification and Resources. Contractor will clearly identify within their proposal, those sub-contractors that are certified DVBE’s. The cost estimate will identify the amounts allocated to those sub-contractors that are certified DVBE’s in their cost proposal.

Contractor is advised that, commitment made to achieve disabled veteran business enterprise (DVBE) participation, if awarded the contract, Contractor must within 60 days of receiving final payment under this agreement (or within such other time period as may be specified elsewhere in this agreement) certify in a report to the awarding department: (1) the total amount the prime contractor received under the contract; (2) the name and address of the DVBE(s) that participated in the performance of the contract; (3) the amount each DVBE received from the prime contractor; (4) that all payments under the contract have been made to the DVBE(s); and (5) the actual percentage of DVBE participation that was achieved. A person or entity that knowingly provides false information shall be subject to a civil penalty for each violation. (Military & Veterans Code (M&VC) section 999.5(d)). Contractor understands and agrees that should award of this contract be based in part on their commitment to use the Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBE) subcontractor(s) identified in their proposal or offer, per Military and Veterans Code 999.5 (e), a DVBE subcontractor may only be replaced by another DVBE subcontractor and must be approved by the Department of General Services (DGS). Changes to the scope of work that impact the DVBE subcontractor(s) identified in the proposal or offer and approved DVBE substitutions will be documented by contract amendment. Failure of Contractor to seek substitution and adhere to the DVBE participation level identified in the proposal or offer may be cause for contract termination, recovery of damages under rights and remedies due to the State, and penalties as outlined in M&VC section 999.9; Public Contract Code (PCC) section 10115.10, or PCC section 4110 (applies to public works only).

For general regarding DVBE contracting assistance, email osdshelp@dgs.ca.gov or call (916) 375-4940.

DVBE Incentive: For this IFB, we are offering progressive incentives to those bidders who exceed the three percent (3%) DVBE participation requirement. The DVBE Incentive Program gives a contractor an opportunity to improve their bid status based on the efforts attained from the DVBE participation and only applied during the bid evaluation process. For award based on low bid, the incentive is applied by reducing the bid price by the amount of incentive points received.

A certified Small Business may only be displaced by another Small Business with higher percentage of DVBE participation and a lower adjusted bid price.

a) Small businesses will be granted the five percent (5%) small business preference on a bid evaluation by an awarding department when a responsible non-small business has submitted the lowest-priced, responsive bid or a bid that has been ranked as the highest scored bid pursuant to a solicitation evaluation method described in § 1896.8, and when the small business:

10. Total Business Preference Limitation - The total combined preferences offered on this bid shall not exceed $50,000. They shall be used only for computation purposes to determine the lowest qualified bidder for selection and award purposes only. The contract shall be awarded at the actual bid amount.

NON-BID OPTION ITEMS:

Option to Increase YEAR 1 (2014-2015) and YEAR 2 (2015-2016) Dredge Volume
Under the base contract, the State reserves the right to order more dredging or adjust dredge locations with volume adjustments and cost modification based on unit pricing provided above. Work may be increased by up to 20% more dredging per year. The Contractor may reject increased volume requests if the Contractor’s equipment or labor utilization schedule does not permit cost effective increase in volume within the available performance period allowed.

Option to Add YEAR 3 (2016-2017) Dredging
An additional dredging season may be awarded by mutual agreement by the State and Contractor to an extension of this contract. Under this third year option, the Contractor would be responsible for providing all labor, materials, tools, equipment and incidentals and doing all work as may be necessary to dredge and remove sand from the Full Tidal Basin; including dredging, transporting, beach placement, measuring, filling, and grading, for a unit price per cubic meter by dredge zone with a minimum maintenance dredge volume of 57,000 m³.

In the event the option year is exercised, retention funds would be released for the base contract at completion of base contract work and retention would recommence for the option year only. Costs for the option year work shall be set as follows with inflationary adjustment:

ARE YOU A RESIDENT OR A NONRESIDENT?

Each corporation, individual/sole proprietor, partnership, estate or trust doing business with the State of California must indicate their residency status along with their taxpayer identification number.

A corporation will be considered a "resident" if it has a permanent place of business in California. The corporation has a permanent place of business in California if it is organized and existing under the laws of this state or, if a foreign corporation has qualified to transact intrastate business. A corporation that has not qualified to transact intrastate business (e.g., a corporation engaged exclusively in interstate commerce) will be considered as having a permanent place of business in this state only if it maintains a permanent office in this state that is permanently staffed by its employees.

For individuals/sole proprietors, the term “resident” includes every individual who is in California for other than a temporary or transitory purpose and any individual domiciled in California who is absent for a temporary or transitory purpose. Generally, an individual who comes to California for a purpose which will extend over a long or indefinite period will be considered a resident. However, an individual who comes to perform a particular contract of short duration will be considered a nonresident.

For withholding purposes, a partnership is considered a resident partnership if it has a permanent place of business in California. An estate is considered a California estate if the decedent was a California resident at the time of death and a trust is considered a California trust if at least one trustee is a California resident.

More information on residency status can be obtained by calling the Franchise Tax Board at the numbers listed below:

From within the United States, call …….1-800-852-5711
From outside the United States, call…….1-916-845-6500
For hearing impaired with TDD, call…….1-800-822-6268

ARE YOU SUBJECT TO NONRESIDENT WITHHOLDING?

Payments made to nonresident payees, including corporations, individuals, partnerships, estates and trusts are subject to withholding. Nonresident payees performing services in California or receiving rent, lease or royalty payments from property (real or personal) located in California will have 7% of their total payments withheld for state income taxes. However, no withholding is required if total payments to the payee are $1500 or less for the calendar year.

A nonresident payee may request that income taxes be withheld at a lower rate or waived by sending a completed form FTB 588 to the address below. A waiver will generally be granted when a payee has a history of filing California returns and making timely estimated payments. If the payee activity is carried on outside of California or partially outside of California, a waiver or reduced withholding rate may be granted. For more information, contact:

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Section 7(b) of the Privacy Act of 1974 (Public Law 93-5791) requires that any federal, state, or local governmental agency which requests an individual to disclose his social security account number shall inform that individual whether that disclosure is mandatory or voluntary, by which statutory or other authority such number is solicited, and what uses will be made of it.

The TIN for individual and sole proprietorships is the Social Security Number (SSN).

It is mandatory to furnish the information requested. Federal law requires that payments for which the requested information is not provided be subject to a 31% withholding and state law imposes noncompliance penalties of up to $20,000.

You have the right to access records containing your personal information, such as your SSN. To exercise that right, please contact the business services unit or the accounts payable unit of the state agency(ies) with which you transact that business.
