CONTINUATION OF LEASE AMENDMENTS DATED
JULY 11, 1986 TO PRC 410, PRC 429 AND PRC 1466

Norris Oil Co. (Norris) is the holder of three oil and gas leases in the Rincon Area, Ventura County. On July 11, 1986, the Commission approved lease amendments which significantly reduced the royalty rates on existing production and modified the bonding provisions. The amendments also required Norris to deposit $1,000,000 with the Commission and to spend $200,000 per year to develop reserves from zones, horizons and reservoirs penetrated but not currently producing (located behind casing). The term of these amendments is five (5) years. The benefit of these amendments are personal to Norris and Commission approval must be obtained to continue them in full force and effect upon the sale of Norris.

Norris has informed Commission staff that its principal shareholder is considering the sale of some or all of its stock in Norris in the near future. Norris requests that the Commission continue in full force and effect the amendments dated July 11, 1986 in the event of such a sale. Staff believes that continuation of these lease amendments will be in the best interest of the State so long as the purchaser of Norris is able to perform the lease obligations in a manner equal to or greater than Norris' present ability to perform them.
