

CHAPTER 538.

An act to provide that in case the people of the city of Alameda should vote to exclude any of their salt marsh, tide or submerged lands, and thereafter the people of the city of Oakland should vote to annex the same, then the city of Alameda through its proper officials may grant said lands to the city of Oakland.

[Approved by the Governor May 16, 1927. In effect July 29, 1927.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. If, under and pursuant to the general laws of the state, the people of the city of Alameda should vote to exclude any of their salt marsh, tide or submerged lands, and thereafter the people of Oakland should vote to annex said lands, then and in that event the city of Alameda, through its proper officials, is hereby empowered to grant said lands to the city of Oakland in trust for the same uses and purposes and upon the same conditions that said lands were acquired from the state, and such grant from the city of Alameda to the city of Oakland shall have the same force and effect as if it were made by the Legislature to the city of Oakland in the first instance.

Alameda
may grant lands to Oakland.