and no license issued as herein provided shall be transferable or used by any other person than the one to whom it was issued.

Sec. 8. Every person having a license as provided herein, who while hunting refuses to exhibit such license upon demand of any officer authorized to enforce the game and fish laws of this state, or any peace officer of the state, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor; and every person lawfully having such license, who transfers or disposes of the same to another person to be used as a hunting license, shall forfeit the same.

Sec. 9. Every person violating any of the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than ten nor more than one hundred days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 10. An act entitled "An act to regulate and license the hunting of game birds and animals and to provide revenue therefrom for game preservation and restoration and to make appropriation for the purpose of carrying out the objects of this act," approved March 13, 1907, is hereby repealed.

Sec. 11. This act shall take effect and be in force on and after July 1st, 1909.

CHAPTER 390.

An act granting certain lands and salt marsh and tide lands of the State of California, to the city of Oakland.

[Approved March 22, 1909.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The interest of the State of California in and to all those lands and premises situated in the city of Oakland, county of Alameda, State of California, and described as follows, to wit: Beginning at the point of intersection of the northern line of Twelfth street dam and the eastern boundary line of lands heretofore granted unto the city of Oakland by the Oakland Water Front Company, by deed dated November 6th, 1891; thence northerly following said last named boundary line to its intersection with or meets with the charter line of the town of Oakland as established in the charter of said town granted in the year 1852, or intersects said line, produced easterly; thence easterly along the said northern boundary line of said town of Oakland produced easterly to the boulevard as now constructed; thence southerly and southwesterly along the shore line of said boulevard as it now exists to the said northern line of said Twelfth street dam; and thence westerly along said northerly line of said dam to the place of beginning, and also so much of the territory and premises in and of the north arm of the estuary of San Antonio in the present city of Oakland as lies between the southerly line of Twelfth street and the mouth of said north arm and between the two lines of ordinary low tide in said north arm as said low tide lines existed on May 4th, 1852, and all the salt marsh and tide lands lying between said southerly line of Twelfth street and the mouth of said north arm of said San Antonio estuary, are hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation.

Sec. 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

CHAPTER 391.

An act to authorize the governor to accept on behalf of the state the grant of certain lands in Butte county.

[Approved March 22, 1909.]

The people of the State of California, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The governor is hereby authorized to accept, on behalf of the State of California, a certain grant of lands in Butte county, more fully described in a certain deed of indenture executed by Annie E. K. Bidwell, of the county of Butte, California, and dated July 1, 1908. The lands so conveyed shall constitute a public park, under the control of the state board of forestry, or their successors in authority, subject to all the reservations and conditions set forth in said deed.

This indenture, made this first day of July A. D. 1908, between Annie E. K. Bidwell of the county of Butte, State of California, the party of the first part, and the State of California, the party of the second part,

WITNESSETH: That the said party of the first part, for and in consideration of the sum of one dollar, lawful money of the United States of America, to her in hand paid by the said party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, does by these presents grant, bargain, sell, convey and confirm unto the said party of the second part, forever, all those certain lots, pieces or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the county of Butte, State of California, and bounded and particularly described as follows, to wit:

All that strip of land of varying width bounded on the west by the Sacramento river and an inlet thereof; on the east by the west line of Sutter avenue and the west line of the county road, said strip of land extending from the north boundary of Rancho Arroyo Chico in the northwest ¼ of section 22, township 22 north of range 1 west, M. D. B. and M., to the southerly extremity of said Rancho Arroyo Chico on the north bank of
