or administration of the State printing plant, and the same may be paid for out of the State printing fund.

CHAPTER 44.

An act to add a new section to be numbered 210 to the Penal Code, relating to extortion.

[Approved by the Governor April 15, 1937. In effect August 27, 1937.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered 210 is hereby added to the Penal Code to read as follows:

210. Every person who for the purpose of obtaining any ransom or reward, or to extort or exact from any person any money or thing of value, poses as, or in any manner represents himself to be a person who has seized, confined, inveigled, enticed, decoyed, abducted, concealed, kidnapped or carried away any person, or who poses as, or in any manner represents himself to be a person who holds or detains such person, or who poses as, or in any manner represents himself to be a person who has aided or abetted any such act, or who poses as or in any manner represents himself to be a person who has the influence, power, or ability, to obtain the release of such person so seized, confined, inveigled, enticed, decoyed, abducted, concealed, kidnapped or carried away, is guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by imprisonment in a State prison during his natural life, or for any number of years not less than five.

Nothing in this section prohibits any person who, in good faith believes that he can rescue any person who has been seized, confined, inveigled, enticed, decoyed, abducted, concealed, kidnapped or carried away, and who has had no part in, or connection with, such confinement, inveigling, decoying, abducting, concealing, kidnapping, or carrying away, from offering to rescue or obtain the release of such person for a monetary consideration or other thing of value.

CHAPTER 45.

An act granting certain salt marsh, tide and submerged lands of the State of California to the city of Oakland, including the management, use and control thereof.

[Approved by the Governor April 15, 1937. In effect August 27, 1937.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the city of Oakland, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all of the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all lands, tidelands, salt marsh and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, included within that portion of the city of Oakland described as follows:

Description

Bounded on the west by the southerly production of the easterly line of Webster Street; on the north by the line of ordinary low tide; on the east by a line drawn parallel with and distant 250 feet eastwardly from the said southerly production of the easterly line of Webster Street; on the south by the southerly boundary line of said city of Oakland.

Conditions

To be forever held by said city, and its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for limited periods (but in no event exceeding fifty years), for wharves and other public uses and purposes and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods (but in no event exceeding fifty years), for purposes consistent with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce and navigation at said harbor.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the State, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a), no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors.

(d) There is hereby reserved, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purpose.

(e) There is hereby excepted and reserved to the State of California all deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, in said land, and to the State of California, or persons authorized by the State of California, the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from said land.

CHAPTER 46.

An act to amend section 4316 of the Political Code, relating to the privileges of public officers.

[Approved by the Governor April 15, 1937. In effect August 27, 1937]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 4316 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

4316. Sheriffs, clerks and constables, and their deputies, are prohibited from practicing law, or acting as attorneys or counselors at law, or as collectors or for any collection agency, in the counties where they reside and hold office, or from having as a partner a lawyer, or anyone who acts as such, and no county officer, or his deputy, except district attorneys, treasurers, deputy county clerks who do not receive regular annual salaries, and public administrators shall be eligible to the office of notary public, or perform the duties of the same.

CHAPTER 47.

An act relating to the operation of motor vehicles used in unemployment cooperative relief work, and declaring the urgency thereof and that this act shall go into immediate effect.

[Approved by the Governor April 15, 1937. In effect immediately.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. (a) The Department of Motor Vehicles may, during the registration years of 1937 and 1938, issue a permit for any motor vehicle used exclusively in unemployment cooperative relief work by any cooperative association operating without profit, dues, or the payment of any salaries in the distribution of goods, wares and merchandise from one place to another, which permit shall allow the operation of any such motor vehicle while so used without the payment of the registration fees required by law.

(b) Every application for permit hereunder must be accompanied by an affidavit duly verified by the owner of the motor vehicle or motor vehicles for which permit is requested, which affidavit shall set forth such facts as in the opinion of
