Stats 1931,
p 1346,
amended

An act to add a new section to be numbered section 2 to Chapter 621 of the Statutes of 1931 entitled "An act granting certain lands and salt marsh and tidelands of the State of California to the city of Oakland, including the management, use and control thereof," approved June 5, 1931, relating to the grant of lands to said city.

[Approved by the Governor July 1, 1937 In effect August 27, 1937.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

New section

SECTION 1. A new section to be numbered section 2 is hereby added to Chapter 621 of the Statutes of 1931, entitled "An act granting certain lands and salt marsh and tidelands of the State of California to the city of Oakland, including the management, use and control thereof," approved June 5, 1931, to read as follows:

Additional
grant

Sec. 2. In addition to the lands, tidelands and submerged lands granted by section 1 of this act to the city of Oakland, there is hereby granted to said city, and to its successors forever, all of the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all lands, tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, included within that portion of the city of Oakland, described as follows:

Boundaries.

Bounded on the west by the lands heretofore granted to the city of Oakland by this act, on the north by the line of ordinary low tide, on the east by the center line of Adeline Street produced southwardly, and on the south by the southerly boundary line of said city.

Said grant is hereby made to the city of Oakland, and to its successors, in trust, for the uses and purposes, and subject to the powers, duties and conditions set forth in this act as to the land previously granted, and to the express reservation and condition that the State may at any time in the future use said lands or any portion thereof for highway purposes without compensation to the city, its successors or assigns, or any person, firm or public or private corporation claiming under it, except that in the event improvements have been placed upon the property taken by the State for said purposes, compensation shall be made to the person entitled thereto for the value of his interest in the improvements taken or the damages to such interest.
