for grading, packing or reconditioning are exempt from the standards established in this chapter. The enforcing officer may affix a warning tag or notice to any fruits, nuts or vegetables failing to comply with the standards established in this chapter.

The owner or person in possession of fruits, nuts or vegetables, which are to be used or disposed of as provided in this section, must, upon the demand of any enforcing officer, give to such officer a sworn statement in writing, made before a notary public, specifying that the fruit, nut or vegetable will be disposed of as provided in this section, and the name and address of the person, to whom such fruit, nut or vegetable is to be delivered, and an accurate identification of such product. Within a reasonable time after the demand and receipt of such statement by the officer a written receipt must be presented to the commissioner of the county specified in the statement as the destination of the fruit, nut or vegetable, by the person making the above mentioned statement. This receipt must contain a signed statement by the person receiving such fruits, nuts or vegetables, that such fruits, nuts or vegetables, giving an accurate description of them, have been received.

Said grant is hereby made to the city of Oakland, and to its successors, in trust, for the uses and purposes, and subject to the powers, duties and conditions set forth in this act as to the land previously granted, and to the express reservation and condition that the State may at any time in the future use said lands or any portion thereof for highway purposes without compensation to the city, its successors or assigns, or any person, firm or public or private corporation claiming under it, except that in the event improvements have been placed upon the property taken by the State for said purposes, compensation shall be made to the person entitled thereto for the value of his interest in the improvements taken or the damages to such interest.

CHAPTER 909.

An act to amend section 537e of the Penal Code, relating to the purchase or sale of manufactured articles from which identification marks have been removed.

[Approved by the Governor July 1, 1937. In effect August 27, 1937]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 537e of the Penal Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

537e. Any person who knowingly buys, sells, receives, disposes of, conceals, or has in his possession a radio, piano, phonograph, sewing machine, washing machine, typewriter, adding machine, comptometer, a firearm, safe or vacuum cleaner, dictaphone, or any mechanical or electrical device, appliance, contrivance, material, piece of apparatus or equipment, from which the manufacturer’s name plate, serial number or any other distinguishing number or identification mark has been removed, defaced, covered, altered or destroyed, is guilty of a misdemeanor.

This section does not apply to those cases or instances where any of the changes or alterations enumerated in the first paragraph have been customarily made or done as an established practice in the ordinary and regular conduct of business, by the original manufacturer, or by his duly appointed direct representative, or under specific authorization from the origi-
