CHAPTER 218

An act to transfer to the City of Oakland a surface easement over certain tide and submerged lands and to define the powers and duties of the city in relation thereto.

In effect September 15, 1945

[Approved by Governor May 3, 1945. Filed with Secretary of State May 3, 1945.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby transferred to the City of Oakland, a municipal corporation, and to its successors forever, a surface easement over all lands, salt marsh, tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, included within that portion of the City of Oakland described as follows:

Bounded on the north by the line of ordinary low tide as said line may have come to rest under natural conditions; on the south by the southerly boundary line of said City of Oakland lying in the Estuary of San Antonio; on the west by a line drawn parallel with and distant 250 feet eastwardly from the southerly production of the easterly line of Webster Street, a public street in said city; on the east by the southerly production of the westerly line of Harrison Street, a public street of said city.

Said transfer is made for the following uses and purposes and subject to the following conditions:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and its successors, only for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion and accommodation of commerce and navigation, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises thereon for terms not in excess of 25 years for uses specified in this paragraph.

(b) That said harbor shall be improved by said city without expense to the State, and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all time, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other improvements constructed on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other water craft, or railroad, or airplane or seaplane owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances herein mentioned, no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city or its successors.
(d) There is hereby reserved, however, in the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purposes.

(e) That there is hereby reserved to the State of California the right and power to prospect for, mine, extract, and remove from said lands any minerals, oil, gas, and other hydrocarbons, and all other things of value which may be contained in the subsurface of said lands; but any such prospecting, mining, extraction, and removal shall not be conducted by the State, or those who hold under the State, in such manner as to unreasonably interfere with the administration herein transferred to the city.

(f) The lands herein described are granted subject to the express reservation and condition that the State may at any time in the future use said lands or any portion thereof for highway purposes without compensation to the city, its successors or assigns, or any person, firm or public or private corporation claiming under it, except that in the event improvements have been placed upon the property taken by the State for said purposes, compensation shall be made to the person entitled thereto for the value of his interest in the improvements taken or the damages to such interest.

CHAPTER 219

An act to amend Section 203 of the Welfare and Institutions Code, relating to county hospitals.

[Approved by Governor May 3, 1945 File with Secretary of State May 3, 1945]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 203 of the Welfare and Institutions Code is amended to read:

203. The board of supervisors in each county may establish and maintain a county hospital, prescribe rules for the government and management thereof, appoint a county physician and other necessary officers and employees thereof, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the board and authorize said hospital to be a member of and maintain membership in any local, State or National group or association organized and operated for the promotion of the public health and welfare or the advancement of the efficiency of hospital administration and in connection therewith to use tax funds for the payment of dues and fees not to exceed in the aggregate, however, the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars ($750) in any one year.
