An act to amend Section 1.25 of Chapter 390 of the Statutes of 1909, relating to the use and transfer of certain lands granted to the City of Oakland.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1.25 of Chapter 390 of the Statutes of 1909 is amended to read:

Sec. 1.25. The city, acting by and through its city council and board of port commissioners may give or grant to the State of California or its appropriate agency or authority such part of the tidelands salt marsh and submerged lands described herein, whether filled or unfilled, as shall be required to construct, operate and maintain structures, facilities and yard space for the use of the National Guard, and other state militia purposes, upon such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon by the city and the State, or its agency or officers having authority therein; provided, that upon the cessation of the use of such lands by the State, or its agency or proper authority, or their successors, for the purposes herein set forth, such lands shall revert to the city subject to the uses, purposes and conditions in this act originally provided.

CHAPTER 659

An act to amend Section 45.8 of the Unemployment Insurance Act (Chapter 352 of the Statutes of 1935) and Sections 1755 and 1757 of the Unemployment Insurance Code, relating to garnishment of employer’s creditors.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 45.8 of the Unemployment Insurance Act is amended to read as follows:

Sec. 45.8. (a) If any person or employing unit is delinquent in the payment of any contributions, penalties or interest provided for in this act, the director may, not later than three years after the payment became delinquent or within five years of the last recording of an abstract under Section 45.9 or of a certificate under Section 45.10, give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail, to all persons having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to such delinquent person or employing unit, or owing any debts to such person or employing unit at the time of the receipt of the registered notice. Any person
