An act to amend Section 1 of an act entitled "An act granting to the City of Los Angeles the tidelands and submerged lands of the State within the boundaries of said city," approved June 3, 1929, relating to tidelands and submerged lands.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of the act entitled "An act granting to the City of Los Angeles the tidelands and submerged lands of the State within the boundaries of said city," approved June 3, 1929, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the City of Los Angeles, a municipal corporation of the State of California, and to its successors, all the right, title and interest of the State of California, held by said State by virtue of its sovereignty, in and to all tidelands and submerged lands, whether filled or unfilled, situated below the line of mean high tide of the Pacific Ocean, within the present boundaries of said city, or of any harbor, estuary, bay or inlet within said boundaries, except as hereinafter provided, to be forever held by said city, and by its successors, in trust for the uses and purposes, and upon the express conditions, following, to wit:

(a) That said lands shall be used by said city, and by its successors, for purposes in connection with, or for the promotion and accommodation of commerce, navigation and fishery, and said city, or its successors, shall not, at any time, grant, convey, give or alien said lands, or any part thereof, to any individual, firm or corporation for any purpose whatsoever; provided, that said city, or its successors, may grant franchises and permits thereon for limited periods, in any event not to exceed 50 years, for purposes in connection with, or for the promotion and accommodation of commerce, navigation and fishery, and may lease said lands, or any part thereof, for limited periods, in any event not to exceed 50 years, for any and all purposes which shall not interfere with the trusts upon which said lands are held by the State of California;

(b) That said tide and submerged lands shall be improved by said city without expense to the State, and any harbor constructed thereon shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have, at all times, the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays and other improvements constructed by said city on said lands, or any part thereof, for any vessel or other watercraft, or railroad, owned or operated by the State of California;

(c) That in the management, conduct or operation of any such harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances constructed in connection therewith no discrimination in rates, tolls, or charges, or in facilities, for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said city, or by its successors;

Reserving, however, in the people of the State of California, the absolute right to fish in said waters, with the right of convenient access to said waters over said lands for said purposes. The grant herein made shall not include those tidelands or submerged lands within those certain areas known as the Westgate addition acquired by the City of Los Angeles by annexation on June 14, 1916, or the Santa Monica canyon addition acquired by the City of Los Angeles by annexation on April 28, 1925, or the Venice addition acquired by the City of Los Angeles by consolidation on November 25, 1925.

CHAPTER 444

An act to add Sections 737.2, 737.4, and 737.6 to the Vehicle Code, relating to the release on bail of persons charged with misdemeanor violations of the code.

[Approved by Governor May 12, 1951. Filed with Secretary of State May 12, 1951 ]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 737.2 is added to the Vehicle Code, to read:

737.2. Jail Custodian May Accept Bail. (a) When an arresting officer attempts to take a person arrested for a misdemeanor violation of this code before a magistrate as provided in Sections 736 and 737 and no such magistrate or person authorized to act for him is available, the arresting officer shall take the person arrested before the officer in charge of the most accessible county jail, city jail or other place of detention within the county, who shall admit him to bail in accordance with a schedule, fixed as provided in Section 737.4.

(b) The authority to admit to bail as provided in subdivision (a) shall include authority to approve the same, to issue and sign an order for the release of the person arrested, and to set a time and place for his appearance before the appropriate magistrate.

SEC. 2. Section 737.4 is added to said code, to read:

737.4 Bail Schedule Fixed by County Magistrates. (a) Every six months there shall be held a meeting of the magistrates in each county having jurisdiction over misdemeanor violations of this code at which a schedule of the amount of bail to be set for the release of persons charged with such violations when taken before an officer in charge of a county jail, city jail or other place of public detention as provided in Section 737.2 shall be adopted, approved or revised.
