United States of America to construct, alter or maintain the structures herein authorized.

SEC. 2. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause or phrase of this act is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this act. The Legislature hereby declares that it would have passed this act and each section, subsection, sentence, clause and phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses or phrases be declared unconstitutional.

SEC. 3. Nothing in this act shall be construed as abridging any right which the state may have, to erect the protective structures herein mentioned, upon, across or over any of the swamp, overflowed, marsh, tide or submerged lands of this state.

CHAPTER 403

An act making an appropriation for painting portraits of governors of California, and directing the state department of finance to carry out the provisions thereof.

[Approved by the Governor May 26, 1931 In effect August 14, 1931]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The state department of finance is hereby directed to engage one or more competent artists to paint oil portraits of all governors of California whose portraits have not heretofore been painted, and portrait of each governor upon his retirement from office, said portraits to be properly framed and hung in appropriate places in the state capitol.

SEC. 2. The sum of seven hundred fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any money in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, to carry out the provisions of this act.

CHAPTER 404.

An act authorizing the survey, location, and establishment of the ordinary high-water mark, bordering upon tide-water of the Pacific ocean, between the westerly boundary line of the city of Santa Monica and the westerly boundary line of the city of Los Angeles.

[Approved by the Governor May 26, 1931 In effect August 14, 1931]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The department of finance, acting by and through the division of state lands, is hereby authorized and directed to survey, locate, and establish the ordinary high-water mark, bordering upon tidewater of the Pacific ocean, between the westerly boundary line of the city of Santa Monica and the westerly boundary line of the city of Los Angeles.

CHAPTER 405.

An act to amend section 5 of an act entitled "An act creating a game refuge to be known as the Huntington lake game refuge providing for the conservation and protection of game within such district, and providing penalties for violation of the act," approved April 7, 1931, relating to the disposition of fines collected for violation of the act.

[Approved by the Governor May 26, 1931 In effect August 14, 1931]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 5 of the act cited in the title hereof, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 5. All fines collected for any violation of the provisions of this act must be paid to the division of fish and game for deposit in the state treasury to the credit of the fish and game preservation fund.

CHAPTER 406.

An act to amend section 2322x4 of the Political Code, relating to the office of agricultural commissioner in counties of the fourth class.

[Approved by the Governor May 26, 1931 In effect August 14, 1931.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2322x4 of the Political Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

2322x4. In counties of the fourth class the commissioner shall receive a salary of four thousand two hundred dollars per annum; provided, that in counties of this class there shall be and there is hereby allowed to the commissioner the following inspectors and clerks, to be appointed by said commissioner, which positions are hereby created and the salaries are hereby fixed as follows, to wit:

(a) Four inspectors at a monthly salary of one hundred fifty dollars each during the time actually employed; ten inspectors at a monthly salary of one hundred sixty dollars each during the time actually employed; five part-time inspectors at a compensation of five dollars per diem during the time actually employed, but the aggregate amount which may be