attending upon the superior court, in going only, per mile, twenty-five cents; provided, that in counties of this class the grand jurors and trial jurors in criminal cases shall be paid warrants drawn by the county auditor, issued upon the order of the court, or judge thereof.

CHAPTER 526.

An act granting certain tidelands and submerged lands of the State of California to the county of Orange in said state upon certain trusts and conditions.

[Approved May 25, 1919. In effect July 25, 1919.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby granted to the county of Orange and to its successors all of the right, title and interest of the State of California held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty in and to all that portion of the tidelands and submerged lands bordering upon and under Newport Bay in the said county of Orange, which are outside of the corporate limits of the city of Newport Beach, a municipal corporation, the same to be forever held by said county and by its successors in trust for the uses and purposes and upon the express conditions following, to wit:

(a) Said lands shall be used by said county and by its successors solely for the establishment, improvement and conduct of a harbor and for the establishment and construction of bulkheads or breakwaters for the protection of lands within its boundaries, or for the protection of its harbor, and for the construction, maintenance and operation thereon of wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, ways and streets, and other utilities, structures and appliances necessary or convenient for the promotion or accommodation of commerce and navigation, and the protection of the lands within said county. And said county or its successors shall not at any time grant, convey, give or alien said lands or any part thereof to any individual, firm, or corporation for any purposes whatever; provided, that said county or its successors may grant franchises thereon for a period not exceeding twenty-five years for wharves and other public uses and purposes, and may lease said lands or any part thereof for a period not exceeding twenty-five years for purposes consistent with the trust upon which said lands are held by the State of California, and with the requirements of commerce or navigation at said harbor.

(b) Said harbor shall be improved by said county without expense to the state and shall always remain a public harbor for all purposes of commerce and navigation, and the State of California shall have at all times the right to use, without charge, all wharves, docks, piers, slips, quays, and other improvements constructed on said lands or any part thereof for any vessel or other water craft or railroad owned or operated by the State of California.

(c) In the management, conduct or operation of said harbor, or of any of the utilities, structures or appliances mentioned in paragraph (a) no discrimination in rates, tolls or charges, or in facilities for any use or service in connection therewith shall ever be made, authorized or permitted by said county, or by its successors. The absolute right to fish in the waters of said harbor with the right of convenient access to said water over said lands for said purpose is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California.

CHAPTER 527.

An act to provide for a suitable memorial in the capitol extension buildings in Sacramento for the part taken by residents of California in the world war.

[Approved May 27, 1919. In effect July 27, 1919.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The state building commission as established by the provisions of chapter two hundred thirty-five of the statutes of 1913 is hereby authorized and directed, in completing plans for the capitol extension buildings in the city of Sacramento, to cause to be incorporated in such plans a room, apartment or such other structure or feature as may be deemed an appropriate memorial of the part taken by residents of California in the army and navy of the United States during the great world war, and the victory for world liberty in battles on land and sea and in the air; to perpetuate the memory of those who gave up their lives in the cause of their country, and the services and sacrifices of those who gave of their time and their means in the auxiliary activities of war services, and the noble record made by the people of this state in the moral and material support rendered the state and national government in every way during the war period.
