

CHAPTER 293.

An act authorizing the department of finance to convey by deed certain tidelands belonging to the State of California situate in the county of San Diego, State of California.

[Approved by the Governor May 11, 1931 In effect August 14, 1931]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The department of finance is hereby authorized and empowered to convey to the United States of America by quit claim deed or other instrument, upon such terms and conditions as shall appear in the judgment of the director of finance to be for the best interests of the State of California, in and to all tidelands and submerged lands (whether filled or unfilled), held by said state by virtue of its sovereignty, situated in the bay of San Diego, in Spanish bight in the bay of San Diego, and in the Pacific ocean, in the county of San Diego, State of California, adjacent to North island and the strand connecting North island with South Island Coronado, more particularly described as follows:

Department of finance to convey San Diego
property.

(a) All tidelands and submerged lands situated along the north, northwesterly, and westerly side of North island, lying Description.

Description between the line of the peninsula of San Diego, as shown on the plat accompanying the United States patent to the peninsula of San Diego, dated June 11, 1869, and the pierhead line in the bay of San Diego as the same has been or may hereafter be established by the federal government.

(b) All tidelands and submerged lands situated in Spanish bight, in the bay of San Diego, adjacent to North island and the strand connecting North island with South Island Coronado, lying between the line of the peninsula of San Diego as shown on the plat accompanying United States patent to the peninsula of San Diego, dated June 11, 1869, and the low water mark in said Spanish bight and lying between the said line of the peninsula of San Diego and the pierhead line in said Spanish bight, as the same may hereafter be established by the federal government; save and except the tidelands and submerged lands in said Spanish bight conveyed to the city of Coronado, a municipal corporation in the county of San Diego, State of California, by an act of the Legislature of the State of California approved April 27, 1923 (California statutes, 1923, chapter 49).

(c) All tidelands and submerged lands, situated in the Pacific ocean, adjacent to North island and the strand connecting North island with South Island Coronado, lying between the line of the peninsula of San Diego as shown on the plat accompanying the United States patent to the peninsula of San Diego dated June 11, 1869, and the low water mark in said Pacific ocean and lying between the said line of the peninsula of San Diego and the pierhead line in the said Pacific ocean as the same may hereafter be established by the federal government, and lying westerly of the prolongation of the line crossing the said strand in the position and direction particularly described as follows: Commencing at a concrete monument (marked CCIII) placed on the mean high tide line of Spanish bight in the bay of San Diego, California, and being north 77°, 20' west 1640.5 feet from the intersection of the northeasterly line of Alameda avenue with the southeasterly line of Olive avenue and being the most westerly corner of block 23 Coronado Beach South island according to official map of said Coronado Beach South island No. 376 filed in the office of the recorder of said San Diego county, the course of said Olive avenue being north 71°, 08' east; thence south 23°, 07' west across said strand to the mean high tide line of the Pacific ocean.