CHAPTER 119

An act amending Section 1 of "An act granting to the City of San Diego certain parcels of the State-owned lands in Mission Bay State Park upon certain trusts and conditions," approved July 24, 1939, relating to tidelands in Mission Bay State Park.

In effect August 4, 1943

[Approved by Governor April 13, 1943. Filed with Secretary of State April 13, 1943]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 1 of the act cited in the title hereof is amended to read:

Section 1. There is hereby granted to the City of San Diego all of the right, title and interest of the State of California in and to those certain parcels of land described in Section 2 of this act owned by it in Mission Bay State Park.

All of said real property hereby granted shall be held by the City of San Diego as a part of its city park system, and administered by said city in accordance with the provisions of its charter.

There is hereby reserved to the people of the State of California the absolute right to fish in the waters of Mission Bay, with the right of convenient access to such waters over the real property hereby granted, for the purpose of fishing.
There is also reserved to the State of California all the deposits of minerals, including oil and gas, in the real property hereby granted, and there is reserved to the State of California, or persons authorized by the State of California, the right to prospect for, mine, and remove such deposits from the real property granted and to occupy and use so much of the surface as may be required therefor.
