

CHAPTER CCCCXC.

An Act to vacate certain streets, alleys, and market places in the City and County of San Francisco, and to donate the same and other tide lands belonging to the State of California to said City and County of San Francisco for commercial purposes, and other matters relating thereto.

[Approved March 30, 1872.]

The People of the State of California, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Tide lands granted to San Francisco upon express conditions.

SECTION 1. All streets and alleys in the City and County of San Francisco which lie within the exterior boundaries of certain salt marsh and tide lands donated by the State to the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and the Western Pacific Railroad Company, for terminal purposes, by an Act entitled an Act to survey and dispose of certain salt marsh and tide lands belonging to the State of California, approved March thirtieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-eight; and, also all streets and alleys within the exterior boundaries of lands lying within the boundaries of said lands not donated to said railroad companies, but reserved for market places, and known as Produce Exchange and Market Place, are hereby vacated, and the lands covered by said streets and alleys and said market places, together with the lands heretofore set apart by the Board of Tide Land Commissioners for basins, and known as China and Central Basins, are hereby granted to the City and County of San Francisco, with full power to regulate, manage, control, and donate or dispose of the same, by ordinance, for railroad and other commercial purposes. The grant herein made to the City and County of San Francisco, for the purposes specified, is on this express condition, to wit: that any lands donated under authority of this Act to any railroad company shall revert again to the State of California, if at any time such railroad company shall cease to use, for terminal purposes, the lands granted to it.

Sec. 2. This Act shall take effect immediately.
