(7) WHEREAS, the Supreme Court of the State of California held in the case of People v. California Fish Company (1913) 166 Cal. 576, that sales of land made pursuant to the tidelands sales statutes passed bare legal title only to those lands between the lines of high and low tides and that any title passed was encumbered by a public trust easement for commerce, navigation, and fisheries; and

(8) WHEREAS, STATE contends that a portion of the lands included within the perimeter description of Tidelands Patent Nos. 2, 3, 4, 21, and 22 were, in their last natural condition, lands below the line of low water and thus not capable of sale as tidelands and that title to these lands remained in the State of California despite their inclusion with the perimeter description of a tidelands patent; and

(9) WHEREAS, the State of California in Chapter 310 of the Statutes of 1913, as amended, granted in trust to CITY the tide and submerged lands within the TRUST TERMINATION PARCELS; and

(10) WHEREAS, the CITY has since held those lands granted by Chapter 310 of the Statutes of 1913, as amended, pursuant to the terms of that grant and as a trustee for the benefit of all of the people of the State of California; and

(b) can no longer be used for commerce, navigation, or fisheries;
(c) have ceased to be tidelands and submerged lands;
(d) have been reclaimed pursuant to and in the course of a highly beneficial public program of harbor development; and
(e) that such lands constitute a relatively small part of the total acreage involved; and

(12) WHEREAS, Chapter 895 of the Statutes of 1980 states that the State Lands Commission, as trustee for the State of California, shall negotiate an exchange with CITY by which the land granted in trust within the TRUST TERMINATION PARCELS shall be exchanged for lands of equal or greater value; and

(13) WHEREAS, Chapter 895 of the Statutes of 1980 also states that upon the completion of such an exchange, the public trust and the terms, trusts, and restriction of Chapter 310 of the Statutes of 1913 shall be terminated in lands within the TRUST TERMINATION PARCELS and imposed upon the lands which the STATE finds are of equal or greater value; and

(14) WHEREAS, the State Lands Commission at its meetings of April 7, and September 29, 1981, found, held, and determined by Minute Item No. 19 (April 7) and Minute Item No. 40 (September 29) that the land within EXCHANGE PARCEL is of a value equal to or greater than the sovereign lands interest within the TRUST TERMINATION PARCELS;
