

CHAPTER 417.

An act to declare certain reclaimed land in the city of Vallejo to be free from certain trusts and restrictions imposed on such land when granted to such city.

[Approved by the Governor May 23, 1925.]

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

Certain lands granted to Vallejo freed from trusts and restrictions.

SECTION 1. All of that land granted by the State of California to the city of Vallejo by the provisions of an act entitled "An act conveying to the city of Vallejo certain tide lands and lands of the State of California lying under inland navigable waters within the boundaries of the said city, situate in the Napa creek, the Mare Island straits and the straits of Carquinez, including the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Vallejo, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof," approved June 11, 1913, which is behind the permanent bulkhead constructed by the government of the United States and which has been filled and can no longer be used for navigation or fisheries, is hereby declared to have ceased to be tide lands or submerged lands, and to be free from all trusts and restrictions imposed on such land under and by the provisions of the act entitled "An act conveying to the city of Vallejo certain tide lands and lands of the State of California lying under inland navigable waters within the boundaries of the said city, situate in the Napa creek, the Mare Island straits and the straits of Carquinez, including the right to wharf out therefrom to the city of Vallejo, in furtherance of navigation and commerce and the fisheries, and providing for the government, management and control thereof," approved June 11, 1913.

---